

Arbitration Commission

1. The Arbitration Commission is the Judicial tribunal of the Lodge.
2. Membership in good standing for a two-year period is required in order to be elected a Commissioner.
3. The Arbitration Commission is composed of five (5) members known as Commissioners with one of the five chosen as its Chairperson.
4. The Arbitration Commission is elected for a period of one year at the annual meeting for electing officers of the Lodge.
5. The Arbitration Commission handles disputes concerning the Lodge that cannot be resolved.