

Sentinel

1. The Sentinel is the doorkeeper of the Lodge.
2. The Sentinel admits members of the Order who have identified themselves, and excludes any non-members. The Sentinel may admit non-members, but only by the permission of the President.
3. The Sentinel monitors the sign-in book.
4. The Sentinel sets up for general meetings, when practicable.
5. The Sentinel escorts members who are late to the podium to acknowledge the President. The tardy members may then take a seat.
